

Simple is more attractive and easier to read and understand

---

simplicity is about making things easy to understand by using less elements to make it obvious what your communicating technology has revolutionized graphic design in the way we see it and the way we use it

---

---

Simple design just gives it to you on a plate, telling you straight away what it is and what it does